

GIFT OF $12500
FOR UNIVERSITY

Permanent Foundation for Endowment of Fellowship for Study of Negro.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Charlottesville, Va., December 8.—President Alderman announced to-day a gift of $12,500 to the University of Virginia by the trustees of the Phelps-Stokes fund as a permanent foundation for the endowment of a fellowship in sociology for the study of the negro. A similar sum for the same purpose was given to the University of Georgia.

The Phelps-Stokes fund was established by the late Miss Caroline Phelps Stokes. Its object is to assist in improving the condition of the negro. One of the best ways to carry out the wishes of Miss Stokes was, in the opinion of the trustees, to endow research fellowships at one or two leading Southern institutions of learning. The University of Virginia and the University of Georgia were chosen because of the splendid opportunity each has of studying the negro problem in a scientific as well as practical way. The endowment will become available at once, and the work of putting the plan into operation will be started without delay.

President Alderman, in making the announcement, expressed himself as being highly pleased with the gift and the opportunity afforded by it. He said he had thought for many years that the fundamental thing to do in dealing with the tangled negro problem was to have it approached scientifically by the scholarship of the South. "The thing to do," he added, "is to take it out of the nervous system of our people and their emotions, and to get it set up before them as a great human problem—economic in nature, scientific in character—to be acted upon as the result of broad, wise, sympathetic study."

President Alderman's announcement came at a particularly opportune time. About 200 students began, on their own initiative, early in the present session, to organize a club for the study of the negro and his relation to the South—economically, socially and politically. These students have perfected their organization, have begun a systematic study in groups, each headed by a student leader, and have mapped out a program which includes addresses by some of the leading scholars in the country. The establishment here of the Phelps-Stokes fellowship has given a tremendous impetus to the work these students have already started.

President Alderman has decided that the department of economics shall conduct the work provided for by the fellowship.

Albert McKinley, colored, indicted by a grand jury for the murder of a white man, was acquitted by the Hustings Court jury yesterday. The jury found that the defendant was not sane at the time of the killing.

DR. B. C. HENING
LEAVES VIRGINIA

Secretary of Baptist Education Commission Resigns to Go to Knoxville.

Much to the regret of the members of the Baptist Education Commission of Virginia, Dr. B. C. Henning, its secretary, has tendered his resignation, to become effective December 15. The reason for his action is his acceptance of a call to the pastorate of the Deadrick Avenue Baptist Church, of Knoxville, Tenn.

For the purpose of acting upon the resignation and choosing a successor, a joint meeting of the Education Commission and the Richmond College board of trustees will be held in this city Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. Dr. Henning rendered much assistance in raising the funds for the building of the new Richmond College at Westhampton. The church to which he goes is one of the strongest of the denomination of the State of Tennessee. It has a membership of 1,400 and is housed in a large and handsome building. The retiring secretary plans to take up his work in Knoxville January 1, but will leave Richmond in advance of that date.

NEGROWIFE STABS
RIVAL TO HEART

Murder Committed on Broad Street in Presence of Husband.

Plunging a butcher's knife to the hilt in the woman's breast, Virgie Robinson, colored, instantly killed Ellen Collins, also colored, yesterday afternoon in front of the store at 542 West Broad Street. Jealousy is said to have prompted the murder.

Policeman Welsh was standing but a few feet away when the murder occurred. He covered the distance in a bound, and prevented the woman from meeting out a like fate to her husband. Both were locked up in the Second Police Station.

Robinson and the Collins woman were talking together when the former's wife appeared on the scene. Without parley, she advanced and plunged the knife into her rival's breast. Ellen died without a gasp, blood spurting from the gaping wound. For a short time the police had difficulty in maintaining order. Finally the people were dispersed, and the body of the dead woman was taken to an undertaking establishment. Coroner Taylor viewed the remains, and an inquest will be held.

TRADES COUNCIL
ELECTS OFFICERS

Hirschberg Succeeds Himself.
Labor Journal to Be Started Next Month.

John Hirschberg was unanimously re-elected president of the Central Trades and Labor Council of the city of Richmond at the annual meeting held last night in the Labor Temple at Fifth and Marshall Streets. Other officers chosen were as follows:

G. L. Wilcox, vice-president; E. W. Blakey, recording and corresponding secretary; Frank Kruck, financial secretary and treasurer; R. P. Dollard, sergeant-at-arms; W. J. Whitlock, trustee.

It was announced that John Mitchell, vice-president of the American Federation of Labor, and looked upon as one of the foremost labor leaders in the country, would probably speak in Richmond some time this winter. With this end in view a committee was named to make arrangements for the event.

A report was received from the Boilermakers' Union, now on a strike at the Richmond branch of the American Locomotive Company, concerning the progress of the movement. It was pointed out that the affair was a peaceful one, and the union men were confident that they would be victorious.

Announcement was also made that beginning with the New Year the first issue of the Virginia Federation of Labor Journal would make its appearance. H. T. Colvin, of Alexandria, will be the editor of the publication, while Major Charles G. Kizer, chief of Police of Norfolk, and Mrs. Alice Tyler, of Richmond, will be associate editors.

Circuit Court of Appeals.
The United States Circuit Court of Appeals reconvened yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock, with Circuit Judge Fritchard and District Judges McDowell and Connor in attendance.

Harvey F. Smith and Philip P. Steptoe, of Clarksville, Va., were admitted to practice in this court.

The following case was argued:
No. 1050—J. Truman Swager, appellant, vs. Harvey F. Smith, trustee in bankruptcy of Tompkins & Geary, bankrupts, appellees, appeal from the District Court at Philadelphia, W. Va. Cause argued by E. G. Smith, of Clarksville, for the appellant, and by Harvey F. Smith and Philip P. Steptoe, of Clarksville, for the appellees, and submitted.

REVENUE AGENT
CONTINUES WORK

Examines Records of Local Federal Offices to Discover Cause of Trouble.

The investigation into the affairs of the offices of the collector of internal revenue and the revenue agent here was resumed yesterday by Revenue Agent L. C. Nutt, of Pittsburgh, Pa. Agent Nutt is here for that purpose who was sent here for that purpose by the United States Internal Revenue Commissioner, it having been brought to his attention that it was said that friction existed between the two branches of the service and there was apparently a lack of harmony.

The investigation is going quietly ahead. Mr. Nutt has been engaged in examining stenographic records of cases tried in the Federal court when, it was claimed, the differences between the offices was apparent during the progress of the trial. He has also gone into the examination of methods employed in regulating the liquor traffic, and has taken depositions from members of the staffs of both offices.

Report to Cabell.

When he has completed this work he will formulate a report, which will be presented to the commissioner for whatever action he may see proper.

The impression grows that this inquiry is merely the forerunner of a more general probe into general conditions existing in some of the other local departments of the Federal government.

It has been intimated that an effort will be made to have Congress look into the situation. A move of this kind was started at the last session, but the presentation of a resolution to bring about this end was, it is stated, headed off.

GIVE ALL CHANCE TO PAY POLL TAX

Last Opportunity To-Day to Qualify to Take Part in Spring Election.

City Treasurer James B. Pace will keep his office open this afternoon to take the accounts of delinquent poll tax payers. This is the last day on which one may qualify in order to vote for Councilmen and Mayor in the election of June, 1912.

All day long yesterday the office was thronged with those settling in order to be in a position to take part in the city government. Deputy Treasurer Isaac Held, in charge of this section of the office, said that while exact figures were not available, the total number of qualified voters was far in excess of former years. The office of Commissioner of the Revenue Tresson will also keep open this afternoon, in order that young men who have recently come of age, or others who were not assessed, may be assessed and settle their poll taxes in due course, while Clerk Walter Christian, of the Hustings Court, will be prepared to clear up the accounts of delinquents for past years, so as to give all desiring to vote a clear bill for taking their place in the management of the city's affairs.

"Nobody desiring to pay taxes has ever been turned away from this office," said Deputy Treasurer Held. "It has always been our custom to keep open the afternoon to put the voters in a crowd waiting line to-morrow morning, we will keep open until all have been waited upon."

Those who come early this morning will not have to wait, but the inevitable rush later may make it necessary during the afternoon to take the voters into line and let them take their place in coming to the windows where Mr. Held and his deputies receive payment. Extra clerical assistance will be provided as needed.

Brings Williams Back.
Detective-Sergeant Wren yesterday afternoon returned from Washington, D. C., with Thomas N. Williams, who is wanted here on a charge of grand larceny. Williams is under two indictments by the December grand jury.

FIGHT DAMAGES ON PARK AVENUE

Suit of Abutting Property Owner to Be Heard in Law and Equity Court.

Way was opened yesterday in the Law and Equity Court for an early hearing of the long-drawn-out litigation which has so far prevented the city from improving Park Avenue west of the Boulevard, and has left for more than a year past, one of the most dangerous crossings in the city of Richmond at Park Avenue and Sheppard Street. By consent of parties, the bill of particulars was filed and the case docketed for an early hearing under the style of J. D. Briggs and Ella G. Briggs against the city of Richmond, in which damages are claimed in the sum of $3,000. Sheppard Street has already been graded from Monument Avenue to Park Avenue, the cut at Park Avenue being more than seven feet. Because of what are regarded as high demands of abutting property

Remarkable Christmas Present

Among the curious Christmas presents of this year will be one for a man of national reputation which has been all year in the making.

Way last January the present was decided upon, and a friend of the prominent gentleman requested the Bureau Press Clipping Bureau, of New York, to watch every paper in America and clip every item which appeared concerning the man.

The clipping bureau people followed instructions, and now present the history of one year in the life of this special man.

The history ends just after election, and the 2,642 newspaper items found include everything from a three-line editorial mention to full-page illustrated stories. These have been mounted on 3,200 great sheets of Irish linen paper and bound into three massive volumes.

At the head of each item is the name and date of the paper clipped from, this information having been put in with a book typewriter. The words thus inserted amount to 153,252.

In actual time a very strict record of which has been kept, the work has required sixty-four working days throughout the year, and has kept in employment during that time thirty people, as readers, clippers, sorters, mounters and binders. Every newspaper in the country has been searched.

This is merely a specimen of some of the unique orders which get into the Burrelle Bureau, for the extent to which the service is used by individuals and by business concerns seems to be remarkable.

There are many people in private as well as in public life who need press clippings and don't know it. It might be well for them to look up this man Burrelle, who is said to be so well known that a letter simply addressed "Burrelle, New York," will reach him with no delay.

owners for damages, Park Avenue has not been cut to the grade required, making an awkward place at the intersection, where vehicles going along Park Avenue are in great danger in crossing or turning into Sheppard Street.

Mr. Briggs is owner of a house fronting Park Avenue, having one side on Sheppard Street, which has already been damaged to some extent by the side grading, and will be further damaged by the cut in front, necessitating underpinning, retaining walls and a change in the method of entering the property. The city asserts that $3,000 is an excessive charge for the damage incurred, in view of the great enhancement of values in the section affected, by reason of the improvements already made, and those projected if abutting property owners will consent.

SEVEN PINES LINE
SALE AUTHORIZED

Subcommittee Agrees to Proposal of Richmond, Urbanna and Peninsula Railway.

Approval was given last night by a subcommittee of the Council Committee on Streets for the sale of the Seven Pines street railway line, now a part of the system of the Virginia Railway and Power Company, to the Richmond, Urbanna and Peninsula Railway Company, which proposes to construct and operate a railway line from Richmond to Urbanna, on the Rappahannock River.

The subcommittee heard from Hiram M. Smith, counsel for the Richmond, Urbanna and Peninsula Railway, and from Maurice A. Powers, C. W. Throckmorton and Judge T. Ashby Wickham, representing citizens of Henrico county living along the present line, and inserted a number of amendments designed to protect citizens living along the line, requiring a half-hour schedule to Seven Pines, and a straight 5-cent fare without transfers.

If recommended by the Committee on Streets and adopted by the Council the sale will have to be advertised in the manner prescribed by law, as the City Attorney's office holds it to be an amendment to the general franchise under which the Virginia Railway and Power Company is operating here.

John C. Robertson, promoter of the new company, stated that contracts had been signed, subject to the approval of the Council on the sale of the line, for track construction from Seven Pines to the Pamunkey River.

That much of the line is guaranteed under bond to be completed within two years, and the entire line within five years.

HEARING CONTINUED

Police Justice Will Give Close Attention to O'Flaherty Case.
Justice Crutchfield yesterday morning continued indefinitely the hearing of D. C. O'Flaherty, member of the law firm of O'Flaherty & Fulton, charged with having been disorderly on car 86 of the Virginia Railway and Power Company several days ago.

proffered his fare. The conductor claimed that he had not paid the fare and placed it in the box provided for that purpose by the company. Mr. O'Flaherty had entered the car when the conductor approached him. He offered, he says, five times to give his fare to the conductor, but the latter refused, saying that it was against the rules of the company, and insisted that Mr. O'Flaherty go back to the rear of the car and deposit his ticket. The passenger refused, and he was then, he alleges, locked within the car and placed under arrest. The attorney, who is represented by several other well known attorneys, contends that he violated no statute law in refusing to obey a rule promulgated by a corporation.

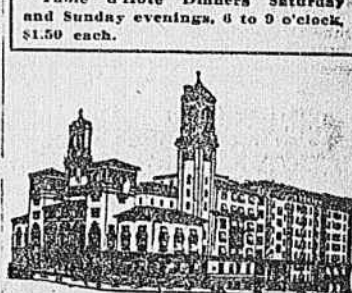

Police Court Cases.
Charles Smith, colored, charged with having broken into the home of Thomas Logan and stealing therefrom a quantity of clothing, was sent on to the grand jury from Police Court yesterday morning.

Charles and John Morton, two of three charged with shooting Robert Yancey, were dismissed, and the case of the third, Bertie Morton, was continued to December 15.
